

1st International Conference on Electrical, Electronic, Computer Engineering & Allied Multidisciplinary Fields

(1st ICEECE & AMF)

Nov. 30 to Dec. 2, 2021

University of Ibadan, Ibadan, Nigeria

Paper submission 12 July 2021

Physical & Virtual

Acceptance 1 September 2021

Camera ready 22 October. 2021

The ICEECE & AMF is organised by the Department of Electrical and Electronic Engineering Department of Nigeria's Premiere University, the University of Ibadan, Ibadan, Nigeria. The ICEECE & AMF aims to bring together researchers from academia, industry and government organisations to share trends in Electrical, Electronic, Computer Engineering and Allied Multidisciplinary Fields for social, economic and technological sustainable development.

Papers are solicited from the following areas

Antenna	Electronic Engineering	Measurements & Instrumentation
Artificial Intelligence	Electronic Physics	Mechatronics
Biomedical Engineering	Embedded Systems	Medical Physics
Biomedical Devices' Development	Energy	Power Electronics
Computer Engineering	Energy Conversion	Power Systems Engineering
Computer Science	Engineering Analysis	Radar, Sonar and Acoustic
Control Engineering	Engineering in Society	Renewable Energy
Cyber Security	High Voltage Engineering	Robotics
Digital Signal Processing	Image Processing	Security and Surveillance
Electrical Engineering	Internet of things	Software Engineering
Electricity Powered Vehicles	Laboratory Equipment Fabrication	Telecommunication
Electromagnetic Field Theory	Machines	Wireless Communication

Agriculture & Food Security (Rural electrification, irrigation, green lab)

Multidisciplinary Engineering Systems with Electrical, Electronic or Computer Engineering Supervisory Subsystems
